

NORTHWESTERN ESTABLISHES JOSEPH MEDILL SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM

OLD GRADS SEE GREAT CELEBRATION AS PURPLE WINS FINAL CONFERENCE GAME

In a Homecoming Day crowded to the brim with events following each other in close succession, the host of returning Purple alumni were extended a royal welcome. The day reached a fitting climax in the "mixer" at the Gym after the rout of the Boilermakers in the afternoon, and banquets in the Gym and the various fraternity houses and dormitories.

Hold Love Feast.

Dean Heilman presided at the banquet for non-fraternity men and downtown students. The speakers were President Scott, ex-Football Captains Wilson and Little, '93 and '98, respectively, and Gray Penfield. Credit should be given Alice Gerard, Maurice O'Brien and Ted Schmidt for the success of the undertaking.

Throw Clever Entertainment.

The rejoicing crowd was entertained by the many and various—from the w. k. twins and Glee Club to the bouts and wrestling matches put on by Dana Evans and Dan Hagen's young hopefuls. The equally w. k. cider and doughnuts satisfied the ring-side patrons. At this time, President Scott announced the Phi Deltas and Deltas as winners of the house decoration cups. The Lambda Chi's with the Purple tank, the Phi Kaps with the "Winged Victory" float, and the Tri Deltas with their "Homecoming or Bust" vehicle won the cups for floats in order named.

Houses Extensively Decorated.

Early in the day the houses were bedecked for the occasion and floats prepared for the parade. Shortly before the game the floats were formed in order of march for the parade to the field. They were preceded by the new Purple band, making its first appearance.

"LOVE THIEF" SEATS IN GREAT DEMAND

Fraternities, Et Al., Will Draw for Coveted Places—Sororities to Compete.

Seats for "The Love Thief," the Hermit and Crow production at the Aryan Grotto, December 10th and 11th, will be drawn by the various campus organizations Tuesday, November 23d. Manager Dale Smith announced that on chapel time of this day the representatives of the various fraternities and organizations would draw ducats for either night.

To Draw for Alumni.

As the order of drawing will be determined by the number of tickets proportionate to the number of members, it will be wise for the alumni of each house to be included to increase the percentage. With an immensely more elaborate production this year, Manager Smith is assured of two capacity houses. In addition, it is probable that a short barnstorming tour may be taken to Rockford and Elgin if negotiations are closed.

Another Sorority Contest.

After the drawings have taken place, the various sororities will hook up in another contest, in which a shield will be presented to the winning group and several handsome prizes to the individual stars. It is expected that those who are not affiliated with any organization will be reached by this campaign.

There will be two rehearsals for the cast and chorus this week on Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 11 E. Franklin.

BY EARLE LE MASTERS.

Undismayed by the formidable season's record displayed by Notre Dame, Coach McDevitt yesterday began to point his men for their closing game next Saturday against the Catholics.

The fact that Indiana managed to hold Gipp & Co. last week 13-10 has given Capt. Penfield's men an idea that the Irish are not so good after all. At least, they will get together for meals this week at the Wrangler House and plan the overthrow of Rockne's tribe.

Before a Homecoming crowd of 14,000, the Purple staged a "come-back" on last Saturday afternoon and trampled the Boilermakers in a 14 to 0 victory. The game was featured by two spectacular runs and some short line plunges by Szold and Lane. Purdue played rather poor football in the first half, but came back in the third period with real fight, and although unable to cross the goal line, had the ball to the ten yard line at two different occasions.

Lane Stars in First Period.

The game started off with an exchange of punts. Purdue lost 15 yards when Rate, recovering a fumble, ran toward his own goal line. He was downed by Saunders. Toward the end of the quarter, Purdue punted to Palmer, who carried the ball back for 8 yards. On the next play, Patterson broke through the line for a 5 yard gain, which was followed by another 5 by Lane. On the fourth down, Buddy Lane tore through the Boilermakers' line and carried the ball for 35 yards. He was brought down on the 5 yard line, and then the quarter ended.

Szold Scores First Touchdown.

The period opened with Lane carrying the ball again, this time getting to the 1 yard line. On the second down "Dummy" Szold carried the pigskin across the Purdue goal line, scoring the first touch down for Northwestern. H. Penfield added another point by kicking goal. The playing of Patterson was a noticeable feature during the entire half, as he tore through the Boilermakers' line for gains almost at will. The half ended just as Purdue punted to Palmer.

Purdue Nears Goal in Third.

The second half saw Purdue coming down the field with a 20 yard run, followed by successive and steady gains, until it looked as if a touchdown was certain. But the Purple line held, and Purdue lost the ball on downs on the 10 yard line. Lane was given the ball and he plunged through the line for a few yards. Just before the end of the period Lane punted.

Penfield Makes 65 Yard Run.

Purdue opened the period with a punt, and Palmer was downed on the 25 yard line. Lane sent the ball back into the Purdue territory with a long punt. Scanlon's warriors began their offensive again and by means of a series of successful forward passes advanced the ball to the Northwestern 35 yard line before the Purple could recover. Here the line held, and three passes were incomplete. On the fourth down, Macklin called for a pass, but the Purple linesmen were too fast and broke through the Boilermakers' line, downing the passer. The ball slipped away from Macklin. Gray Penfield scooped it up and tore down the open field toward the Purdue goal line. Rate, the fast halfback of the Boilermakers, raced after Penfield, but was unable to down him until he had passed under the goal post. Henry Penfield again kicked goal.

SYLLABUS CUP GOES TO ALPHA CHI OMEGA

The 1922 Syllabus subscription campaign closed yesterday with the standing of the sororities very close. Alpha Chi Omega won the first prize cup and and Delta Gammas copped the second mug. Those sororities deserving honorable mention are Pi Phi, Gamma Phi, and Theta.

Alpha Chi Omega's team was composed of Essie Tichenor, capt.; Edna Wirt, Mary Louise Smith, Nell Jones and Mary Esther Schneck.

Une Greene Individual Winner.

The competition for the individual cup was very keen, Une Greene being the victor by a small margin. Essie Tichenor, the captain of the Alpha Chi Omega team, ran a close second, with Helen Brown a good third.

All sororities who have not reported their final subscription count are requested to do so today between 4 and 5 in U. H. No credit will be given for these subscriptions, but this "checking in" will aid the management materially in closing up the books.

Aged Seniors Hold Fast Party Tonight

Listen Ye!!
Members of Senior Class!!
Tonight's the night.
The place—Patten Gym.
The hour—7:45.

The first Senior party of the year will be staged tonight at Patten Gym. The party will be given in the form of a sport party; every Senior is to be garbed in some representative sport costume.

Clever Stunts Ready.

Social Chairman Mary Esther Schneck and her committee have doped several novel stunts which, according to all indications, will be second to none of the season. As per usual, the customary menu of sweet cider and doughnuts will be served. Treasurer Wesley Race will occupy a position at the door in order to collect any contributions from those desiring to purchase admittance.

Every Senior is requested to come and help to make this party one of the gala events of the season.

Don't forget the time, place, and hour.

WRANGLER SPORTSMEN BAG Y. M. C. A. MONK

The final figures showing the results of the most successful campaign ever put on by the Y. M. C. A. on Northwestern's campus have just been completed. While the goal originally set has not yet been reached, the finance committee is confident that the $2,500 will all be pledged within the near future, especially since but fifty per cent of the members of the "Y" have been solicited.

"The campaign was a marked success," said Secretary Norton yesterday. "Though we fell about $400 short of the mark, the high average is an indication that the 350 men who subscribed were fully aware of the fact that the "Y" deserves support. Our average compares very favorably with that of other schools."

Wranglers Win Monk.

The Wranglers won his majesty, "Boscoe," and it is now rumored that he sleeps with Harry Grausnick every night. Their total was 366. C. H. Burke gathered the largest amount of money, and so received the gold watch chain and penknife. The standing of the groups follows:

Wranglers, $366; Lambda Chi Alpha, $165; Masonic Club, $142.50; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, $127; Scriblers, $127; Phi Kappa Sigma, $114; Lindgren House, $102; Delta Upsilon, 97; Sigma Nu, $77; Delta Tau Delta, $75; Phi Delta Theta, $75; Phi Kappa Psi, $74; Haven House, $72.50; Foster House, $63; Hinman House, $49; Beta Theta Pi, $41; Sigma Chi, $35; off campus and individuals, $319. Total, $2,119.

Masons 100 Per Cent.

The Masonic Club scored 100 per cent, as every member made a subscription. The parrot was won last year by Sigma Chi with a total of approximately $500. C. H. Burke won first in the individual contest with $251. Vinton Thompson was second with $165, and Charles Wing third with $134.

The average of $6 per subscription gives Northwestern a good standing among other colleges and universities of the country. According to the latest figures obtainable, the averages of some of the leading schools are as follows:

Princeton, $10; University of California, $6; Northwestern, $6; Yale, $5.75; Wisconsin, $4.50; University of Illinois, $4.10; Harvard, $4.05.

TRIBUNE EDITORS SCHOOL FOUNDERS

Establish School as Tribute to Memory of Joseph Medill.

Establishment of the Joseph Medill School of Journalism as a part of Northwestern University under the sponsorship of the Chicago Tribune, to take place within a few months, was announced Saturday morning from the office of President W. D. Scott. Tho few of the vast Homecoming throng knew of it, the coincidence of the announcement with the greatest fall reunion in University history made the day a red letter one in Northwestern's history.

McCormick, Patterson, Founders.

The editors of the Tribune—Robert R. McCormick and Joseph Medill Patterson—are grandsons of Joseph Medill, founder of the paper and are establishing the school as a tribute to his memory. It is rumored that many colleges and universities had requested that they be given the school before Northwestern was decided upon.

The new department comes to Northwestern because of the unusual advantages offered by this university. The Medill school will operate as a part of the School of Commerce offering courses both in Evanston and Chicago. In addition, it will have the thoro co-operation of all Chicago papers and will be able to conduct laboratory work in all of their plants.

As Good as Pulitzer School.

Advantages in training given by only one journalistic school in the United States, the Pulitzer school at Columbia University, will be given by the Joseph Medill school.

"The Joseph Medill School of Journalism aims to help newspapermen as the linotype helped the newspaper," was the comment of Joseph Medill Patterson, co-editor of the Chicago Tribune.

"So far as I know, with the exception of the Pulitzer school in New York, all American schools of journalism are situated in small college towns. The advantages of a school in a great newspaper city like Chicago are obvious because the students in-

Delta Gamma's Pep Wins Big Daily Cup

Yesterday at Chapel time Norman E. Anderson, business manager of the Daily, presented the cup to the Delta Gamma's who were the winners of the subscription contest. Harriet Crawford received the cup as she led in the number of subscriptions while Ruth Jackson was next. Their total number of subscriptions was 213, the Pi Phi's were next with 183 and the Kappa Delta's third with 113.

Get 1500 Subscriptions.

The total number of subscriptions were 1,500 this year, the largest number since the war. The Daily no longer ranks low in newspapers of the Big Ten and is now equal to the Daily Maroon. There are hopes of some day having a magazine as a majority of the Big Ten have but now nothing can be said as to when. With the founding of the Joseph Medill School of Journalism may come this magazine.
